

Elmbridge Eagles Rugby League – Photography and Filming Opt-Out

At Elmbridge Eagles Rugby League, we recognise the importance of promoting Rugby League and celebrating our players' achievements through photography and video.

Images and videos may be used in club communications, on our website, social media platforms, and in promotional materials, in line with RFL safeguarding, recording images of children policies and data protection regulations.

We take all reasonable steps to ensure that these images and videos are used appropriately and in accordance with RFL safeguarding and GDPR guidance.

If you do not consent to your child(ren)'s images or videos being used for these purposes, please complete the form below and give a signed hard copy to Kevin Rudd or Jane Belbin or email the completed form to admin@elmbridgerl.com.

I do not consent to my child(ren)'s photographs or videos being used for promotional purposes by Elmbridge Eagles Rugby League.

This opt-out does not apply to images and videos used for safeguarding, identification, or internal record-keeping purposes.
